

Post Adoption Support Services

Post Adoption Support Services Narrative Therapy Training

Post Adoption Support Service is holding a workshop in using a narrative therapy approach when supporting people whose lives have been affected by adoption.

This workshop is for counsellors, psychologists and other professional practitioners who work with or who want to work with people who have been adopted, birth mothers and families and adoptive parents and families.

Shona Russell, who is a narrative therapy practitioner, will be facilitating this training.

Shona uses narrative therapy in her clinical practice, and is a trainer of using a narrative approach to therapy and community work.
