Preliminary Notice Expressions of interest wanted

Jayne's focus for over 25 years has been the training and education of adoption and foster care professionals and families. She has been a featured speaker at numerous state and national conferences in the USA, and is an award-winning recipient for her work as a child welfare trainer.

Jayne is the author or co-author of five books including the well known works "The Whole Life Adoption Book", "Searching for a Past" and "Journeys after Adoption".

Jayne says "My newest research and writing work here has focused on the need to narrow the gap between the foster or adoptive parents' expectations and reality. We look at trauma-informed assessment and preparation".

This full day workshop is suitable for any professionals working with children whose early development has been compromised by trauma or neglect of any kind, including social workers working in foster care, permanent placements, adoption, care and protection, and psychologists psychotherapists, or counsellors working with such children and their families.

If you are interested in attending, notify us now to ensure a place and receive further details later. No payment needed at this stage.
