

Parenting Workshop:

(Suitable for parents, teachers, workers and volunteers - anyone who works with traumatised children)

Supporting Children who have been Traumatized:

Presented by Kath Silard OAM. Kath is a highly regarded parenting author, educator and counselor who works directly with parents to help them deal with and understand the common issues that both parents and children face.

This workshop will educate support workers and parents in exploring play options to help children who have been traumatized. The workshop is interactive and has been found to be highly beneficial for parents, workers and volunteers.
